In transferring this plant I would state for the information of the public that the facilities of the Kinsley Bros. Creamery Company, with their twenty creameries in the country and my plant in this city, make the delivery of daily products to the public simply perfect, and the patronage so liberally bestowed upon me in the past, I respectfully solicit for the above-named company.

F. K. WARD.

To the Public; Washington, D. C., February 21, 1880. Washington, D. C., February 21, 1859.

To the Public:

Having purchased from Mr. Frank K, Ward the Alderney Dairy and all properties connected therewith (except real estate), we this day assume control and become responsible for, and entitled to, all bills incurred, whether receivable or payable, from and including this date. Our extensive creamery plant, consisting of twenty creameries, located in Virginia, gives us unsurpassed facilities for supplying the best dairy products, and our aim and desire will be to give a better service to our patrons than heretofore enjoyed by them. As soon as practicable necessary changes will be made in the line of furnishing and enjarging the delivery system, and we request your patronage.

Very Respectfully,

KINSLEY BROS. (FRAMERY CO.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, FEBRUARY 19, 1889.
In pursuance of an order approved by the Commissioners December 8, 1888, section 12 of the Plumbing Regulations of the District of Columbia is hereby amended to read as follows. Said amendment to take effect March 1, 1889;

I, 1889:
Section 12. All concrete pavements must be repaired by the contractor doing such work for the District Government, and all block pavements by the Superintendent of Streets. Persons desiring to remove any improved pavement for sewer laterals, water and gas services, must first deposit with the Collector of Taxes, D. C., the sum of fifteen dollars, the receipt for which must be exhibited before the permit is issued. After the completion of the work the surplus, if any, will be returned to the depositor.

As soon as possible, after a cut has been the work the surplus, if any, will be returned to the depositor.

As soon as possible, after a cut has been made in a concrete pavement and filled in by the plumber or others making it, the Superlutendent of Streets will go over it, remove safficient of the filled-in material and put in a concrete arch. This arch is to abut upon the natural, undisturbed earth. He will then fill in over the arch with earth and leave it to await the coming of the Contractor of Minor Repairs.

2. The Contractor for Minor Repairs to concrete pavements, will remove the material from the top of the concrete arch and put in the necessary concrete binder and wearing surface to complete the job. The total expense of doing the work to be charged to the plumber, gas company or others making the cut.

3. All plumbers or others removing valuable material from the street, such as granite blocks, asphalt blocks, etc., etc., will be held accountable for the same until they are replaced by the District laborers, and any of this material lost or fajured will be charged to them. In case of the plumber or other party making the excavation so elect, he may haul the material to the D. C. property yard and take a receipt for the same when his responsibility for the same shall cease.

The close of the centennial exercises at Georgetown College yesterday was peculiarly interesting and impressive. After the conferring of degrees, as announced in yesterday's Curric, Cardinal Gibbons made an address, and gold medals were presented to the Cardinal President Cleveland and to John Gilman Shear, L.L. D., the historian of the Catholic Church in America, for his work, "The Life and Times of Archbishop Carroll." The medals were struck for the Alumni Association, and were presented by Father Murphy. The President received his last, and as it was landed to him the hall resounded with enthusiastic cheers. After the ceremonies in the Gaston Memo-rial Hall, Cardinal Gibbons and the Presi-dent held a record dest held a reception to the alumni in the Coleman Museum Hall. The Cardinal re-turned to Baltimore, much pleased with his Mr. Blaine Rents a Pew.

Constipation,

F not remedied in season, is liable to become habitual and chronic. Dras-tic purgatives, by weakening the bowels, confirm, rather than cure, the evil. Ayer's Pills, being mild, effective, and atrengthening in their action, are generally recommended by the faculty as the best of aperients. best of apericuts.

"Having been subject, for years, to constipation, without being able to find much relief, I at last tried Ayer's Pills. I deem it both a duty and a pleasure to testify that I have derived great benefit from their use. For over two years past I have taken one of these pills every night before retiring. I would not willingly be without them."—G. W. Bowman, 26 East Main st., Carlisle, Park.

"I have been taking Ayer's Pills and using them in my family since 1857, and cheerfully recommend them to all in need of a safe but effectual cathartic."

—John M. Boggs, Louisville, Ky. "For eight years I was afflicted with constipation, which at last became so bad that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pils, and soon the bowels recovered their natural and regular action, so that row I un in excellent health." S. L.

The Missing Ingredient. James Riculton, the Maplewood, N. J., schoolmaster, who has been traveling around the world a year in search of some mysterious substance which Mr. Thomas A. Edison wanted, returned yesterday. He has visited India, China, Burmah, Japan, Norway, Sweden and other countries. He declines to say whether he found that which he countries.

Contradictory Stories About Papers. It is reported that a New York paper, W. J. Arkell of the Albany Journal has bought, is Frank Leslies Mus-trated News. Colonel Cockerill says there is no foundation for the report that Mr. Arkell, Mr. Sleicher and himself were to start a comic paper in London. Mrs. Leslio said recently that she intended to relinquish the management of some of her papers, but not the Wrekly.

The Storm in the South. The snow storm Thursday night in North Carolina was the heaviest known in ten years. Trains are delayed. Snow fell to the depth of from two to twelve inches in various parts of the State. The weather his now moderated. The storm was gen-eral also in Virginia, and it is feared that freshets will result from the melting of the

The Warrant for Colonel Dudley. A special from Indianapolis states that as soon as the warrant for Mr. W. W. Dudley's arrest was issued, Attorney-General

Michener telegraphed Mr. Dudley advising him to come to Indianapolis and surrender himself and be admitted to ball, to avoid being brought by an officer. Diamonds Disappear. Mrs. Snyder, daughter of ex-Governor Oglesby of Illinois, who has been spending a few days in San Diego, Cal., was robbed of $12,000 worth of diamonds and jewelry at Delmar on Thursday. They were given to the young man who acted as clerk to be placed in the safe. The young man and the diamonds have both disappeared. Prohibition Nominations, The Rhode Island Prohibitionists yesterday made these nominations: Governor, H. H. Richardson; Lieutenant-Governor, Joshua C. Brown; Attorney General, John T. Blodgett.

Robert Garrett's Health. It is reported that Robert Garrett's health has so improved of late that he contemplates leaving Ringwood in a few days for Mexico.

The Man or His Money. Mrs. Nellie Goodwill, a widow, who lives in Detroit, Mich., and whose age is progressing into the thirties, began suit in the Civil Court on Thursday against Maxwell Fisher for $50,000, charging breach of promise of marriage. Fisher, who is an aged millionaire, has been boarding with Mrs. Goodwill s nee his separation from his wife last summer. Fisher says he may have had matrimonial aspirations, but Mrs. Goodwill is not concerned therein, never was, and never will be.

Discounting the Chances. The detention at Castle Garden of the twenty-three Arabs who arrived on the Leerdam from Antwerp this week, on the ground that they might become a charge to the State, brought to light a scheme of the steamship companies to avoid being stuck for their return passage in case the men were not allowed to land. Each of the Arabs had a receipt for money deposited for return passage. This deposit was to be returned in case they were allowed to land.

A Murder in Baltimore. A dissolute old woman known as Jane Harris was last night found stretched out on Chestnut street, Baltimore, with her clothing on fire and blood streaming from an ugly wound in her face, while James Duffy, the young man with whom she lived, was looking on with apparent indifference. The fire was extinguished and the woman removed to the hospital, where she died in a few moments. An exploded lamp was found in the room, and the police think that Duffy had struck the old woman with the contract of the contra it during a row such as they frequently in-dulged in. Duffy was arrested, as also was Annie McFadden, who was in a druken stupor in the adjoining room. Duffy was accused of beating a woman to death sev-eral years ago, but managed to escape con-viction.

The Society of Vicksburg. A temporary organization of the new army Society of Vicksburg was effected in Indianapolis yesterday by electing Governor A. P. Hovey president of the society until the regular meeting in May next. There were about 100 veterans present at the meeting, which was called to order by General R. A. Cameron of Denver. Resolutions were adopted demanding a service pension law and favoring the payment of pensions on a gold basis.

Trouble Over Chinese Miners. All the white miners, to the number of several hundred, employed in the Dunsmier coal mines at Comox, B. C., have struck. The trouble arose from the emstrees. The frontile arose from the employment of some Chinese at the mines. The miners demanded that the Chinamen be discharged, which was refused. The whites are drinking and carousing, and threaten to burn the Chinese quarter and slaughter the Chinese. The local milita is preparing to move to the scene of trouble, and there are grave fears of bloodshed.

The Veto of the Riverland Bill. News of the veto of the Riverland bill was received at Fort Dodge with general surprise. All lawyers sustain President Cleveland from a legal standpoint, while the opinion of business men as to the merits of the veto are divided. Real estate men rejoice. All the settlers who have made settlement receive the veto as just, while the settlers who have made no settlement are greatly disappointed. The set-tlers at Lehigh will hold a meeting to pre-pare a resolution to be forwarded to Con-gress asking for the passage of the bill over the veto.

A Colorado Train Boarded. Five men boarded train No. 17 last evenng as the train left Pixley, Col. Two went on the engine and covered the engineer and emen with revolvers. When about two miles from the station the train was brought to a stop, and the other three men entered the express car and ordered the messenger to open the box, covering him with revolvers. Dynamite bombs were exploded under the cars, and during the excitement several passengers ran toward the front, two of whom were shot. E. S. Bentley of Modesto was probably fatally wounded. The other, Charles G. Albert of Poso, was killed instantly. The train ran back to Pixley, where news was left. The passenger coaches were not molested.
